Building for Hope Benefit Concert 2011

Dear Sponsor,

For the past two years, a small group of young individuals has come together to organize a benefit concert entitled "Building for Hope" to raise money for the Gawad Kalinga Organization. Gawad Kalinga (GK) is a wonderful organization that works to take families out of poverty in the Philippines and establish communities. They work with students and various groups all over the world, building an international team to combat poverty in the Philippines. Through working with GK, students get the opportunity to change the lives of those suffering in this third world country as well as bring hope to the hopeless.

The theme of our concert this year is "Heroes." There is no definite explanation of what a hero is as they come in all shapes and sizes. A hero can come from the most surprising places; for many of us, they were the people living in poverty. They have taught us to never lose hope and keep striving to help others.

How can you help?

We are featuring advertisements in our program this year. You can buy various sizes and be featured in our program which will be distributed among the audience. This will give you an opportunity to donate financially to Gawad Kalinga as well as if it is a business advertisement, help increase sales and services. You do not have to purchase an advertisement for business purposes but simply feature an ad in honor of Gawad Kalinga, wishing the best luck from your family, etc.

What we will need from you:

- 1) Donation amount (according to advertisement size)- can submit online through "Donate Today" or pay to Building for Hope representative
- 2) Pre-made advertisement OR what you want to include in terms of image and written portion
- 3) Advertisement feature form filled out
- 4) Send your advertisement and advertisement form online to: buildingforhope@gmail.com OR give to Building for Hope representative
